

2020 Farm Bureau® Ag Innovation Challenge Terms and Conditions

Welcome to the 2020 Farm Bureau® Ag Innovation Challenge (“The Challenge”), administered by the American Farm Bureau Federation (“AFBF”), in partnership with Farm Credit.

Your entry into the 2020 Farm Bureau® Ag Innovation Challenge is deemed acceptance of these Terms & Conditions by each individual currently involved with the business represented (each or together, an “Applicant”). In the event that a winner of any prize level fails to satisfy any of the eligibility requirements and/or Terms & Conditions, that prize winner shall not be entitled to the prize and the prize may be awarded to another eligible entrant, or the prize may not be awarded, at AFBF’s sole discretion.

1. ELIGIBILITY:

NO PURCHASE IS NECESSARY TO ENTER OR WIN.

1) The 2020 Farm Bureau Ag Innovation Challenge is open to all Farm Bureau members. To be eligible, Applicants must be a member of a state Farm Bureau at the time of submission of the application. In addition, Applicants must be 18 and legal residents of the United States at the time of entry. Employees of AFBF and its affiliated companies, and employees of the Farm Credit System entities and their affiliated organizations are not eligible to compete. VOID where prohibited.

2) All businesses entered into the Challenge must be for-profit. Non-profit businesses are not eligible.

3) At least one member of your business team must be available to attend and participate in the Top Ten in-person competition, the Final Four Live Pitch Event, and the awards ceremony to be held at the 2020 American Farm Bureau Federation Annual Convention in Austin, TX from January 18, 2020 to January 20, 2020. Airfare or car rental, meals and hotel for up to two team members will be paid by AFBF.

2. DUTIES OF CHALLENGE SEMI-FINALISTS AND FINALISTS

- 1) If you are chosen as a Top Ten Challenge Semi-Finalist, you agree to:
- A. Send at least one person from your business team to attend the 2020 AFBF Annual Convention in Austin, TX from January 18, 2020 to January 20, 2020. During that time, participants will complete an orientation, will compete in a live presentation and question and answer session in a public venue, and may participate in an awards ceremony. Airfare or car rental, meals and hotel for up to two team members will be paid by AFBF.
 - B. Participate in interviews before the Convention, during the Convention and following the Convention (at the convenience of the participant) with American Farm Bureau reporters and other Farm Bureau staff.
 - C. Participate in interviews with media at the local, state and national levels.

Note: American Farm Bureau Federation supports farmers and ranchers from a wide range of production practices and philosophies. Finalists should refrain from defamatory language which casts certain production practices in a negative light during these interviews.

3. HOW TO ENTER

5. SELECTION PROCESS

The Challenge will consist of three rounds, running from August 5, 2019 until January 20, 2020.

During Round 1, applicants will submit their online applications through The Challenge website at <http://fb.org/aginnovationchallenge>. The application calls for inclusion of various information regarding an Applicant's business plan, photos and a video pitch. An online judging panel will review the applications and select the Top 10 teams, which will be announced on November 5, 2019. The Top Ten Semi-Finalist teams will travel to the 2020 AFBF Annual Convention to compete live. Travel expenses will be paid for by AFBF for two members of each Top Ten Semi-Finalist team.

Round 2 will take place at the 2020 AFBF Annual Convention, where the Top Ten Semi-Finalist teams will pitch their business in private, workshop-style rooms in front of a panel of judges. These judges will provide feedback to each team and will select four (4) teams to compete live in the Final Four Live Pitch competition.

Round 3, the final round, will also take place at the 2020 AFBF Annual Convention and will consist of the final four (4) teams competing on stage in a live event in front of a team of judges and a live audience in Austin, TX at the AFBF Annual Convention. The top four (4) teams will compete for the grand prize and title of Farm Bureau Entrepreneur of the Year award as well as the People's Choice Award. The winners will be announced at the 2020 AFBF Annual Convention Closing General Session in Austin, TX on Monday, January 20, 2020. At least one member of each of the four Finalist teams is required to be present at the AFBF Annual Convention Closing General Session and to accept their award on stage if they are chosen as a winning team.
